UVICK DROPS FIRST ROUND

"Knockout" Brown of Chicago
Maintains Name in Battle.

POLICE STOP MILL AT ONCE

Apparent South Omaha Pug No
Match for Outlander, as He Hops
About the Ring Evading
Broadside of Blows.

George "Knockout" Brown handed Billy Uvick a neat package of defeat in the first round of what was scheduled to be a ten-round pug before the Ak-Sar-Ben Athletic club of South Omaha last night. Brown floored Uvick with a left hook to the jaw. The South Omaha took the count of nine and would have gone out had not the bell saved him.

Jack Ford, referee, in counting the nine seconds over Uvick absorbed exactly sixteen seconds by a stop watch and when Brown attempted to finish Uvick with a series of rights and lefts Ford pulled the Chicago man off and the bell rang.

Uvick was a defeated man when he stepped in the ring. He danced about the ring trying to evade the Chicagoan's deadly swings. About fifty seconds after the round opened Brown landed a right on Uvick's jaw and followed it up with a stiff left to the other side of the face, and Uvick sank. Following the bell after the first round Police Chief Briggs ordered the arena and announced that the fight was over. Uvick having been knocked out despite the efforts of the referee to save him.

Brown had Uvick going from the start and if the latter had been allowed to come up for the second round he would have been given a terrific beating. Uvick never landed one blow on his adversary, while the latter landed anywhere and any time he pleased.

In the preliminaries "Kid" Feeney of Omaha outpointed "Kid" Terry of San Francisco in four rounds. John Chalk and "Kid" Swadlow won four rounds to a draw, as did "Snipes" Fitzgerald and Alva Graves.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Cuts Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 3/4 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a cold or cough in 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps and cures.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacal and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equalled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., 24 Wayne, Ind.

GOULD WEDDING REHEARSED

Party Makes Trip to Lyndhurst by Automobile.

FEAST FOR HOMELESS MEN

Bride Orders Dinner Served for Thousand at Bowers Mission
Tomorrow at Hour of the Ceremony.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Miss Helen Gould and Modley J. Shepard, whom she will marry tomorrow, today rehearsed their wedding in the great drawing room at Lyndhurst, Miss Gould's country home. The Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of the Irvington Presbyterian church, who will perform the ceremony, prompted them in their replies and instructed the attendants in the roles which they will play.

These included Louis J. Shepard, brother of the bridegroom-to-be, as best man, and Miss Gould's little niece, Helen and Dorothy, daughters of Frank Gould, who will be flower girls and the bride's only attendants. The wedding party arrived by automobile.

A stream of messengers bearing presents poured through the grounds of Miss Gould's estate today. Gifts came from wealthy friends of the bride-elect; from friends on the Bowers and the East Side for whom she has done much in the past; from the army, navy, military organizations and various individuals. Among the gifts were a handsome rope of pearls from George J. Gould, a coronet of diamonds from Frank Gould, and a set of tapestries from Edwin Gould. Howard Gould, it is said, has given his sister a rare art treasure which he purchased recently in Paris.

The wedding guests have only been restricted to members of both families and a few friends. Not more than seventy-five persons will witness the ceremony. Most of these will come from New York tomorrow by special train. The ceremony will take place at 12:30 o'clock.

Miss Gould and her fiancé had not taken out their marriage license early this afternoon. Robert Dashwood, clerk of the town of Greenburg, waited in his office a request from Miss Gould to come to Lyndhurst and issue it there.

This could be done legally and would relieve Miss Gould of the ordeal of securing by the curious who had gathered outside the clerk's office.

Dinner for the Poor.
Miss Helen Gould has made the army of homeless men in New York happy with the announcement that they will receive a treat tomorrow at her expense. Tomorrow is the day of her marriage to Finley J. Shepard of St. Louis at Lyndhurst, her country home near Tarrytown.

The feast for the poor will be served by relay to 1,000 men in the basement of the Bowers mission, in whose work Miss Gould has long been interested. A musical entertainment will also be provided.

Miss Gould decided upon this plan yesterday afternoon while messengers were bringing her wedding gifts by the hundreds. Some of the packages, it is assumed, came from the Bowers, where she made many friends by her philanthropic work. One present was a soup dish made by 200 girls of Miss Gould's sewing class.

Republicans Control Contest Committee of Wyoming House

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 21.—With the most staid decorum possible the lower house of the Wyoming legislature went through the business of completing its action preparation to hearing and this afternoon the message of Governor Joseph M. Carey. In the interim since yesterday's riot in the house over Speaker Pratt's committee appointments, democrats and republicans had gotten together and agreed on a substitute committee on elections for the one offered by the chair. The speaker had placed himself with even number each of republicans and democrats on this committee and referred to it the contests against three republican house members. In the substituted committee which was made today, the republicans have four and the democrats three members. This is advantageous for the election of Senator Francis E. Warren, who, if the contest is overruled, has enough votes to win the senatorship.

FISHER CHARGES BRIBERY WILL NOT PUSH NEW LAWS

Secretary Answers Accusation of Osage Indian Council.

ONE MAN MAKES CONFESSION

Evidence of Corruption in Deal with Officers of Uncle Sam Oil Company Turned Over to Department of Justice.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The attempt of the seven Osage Indian councilors deposed by Secretary Fisher to force their reinstatement by mandamus proceedings, failed today when the district supreme court dismissed their petition. The secretary removed them for having been "unduly influenced" in granting a lease to the Uncle Sam Oil company.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Secretary Fisher answered the charge he had attempted to coerce the Osage Indians into leasing their valuable Oklahoma oil lands to the Standard Oil company, to the exclusion of the Uncle Sam Oil company, in a statement today before the house Indian affairs committee. The secretary, recently removed from the department under circumstances which the Department of Justice is about to present to the federal grand jury. He charged some of them with having been unduly influenced by the Uncle Sam company.

"When the circumstances under which these leases were drawn came to the department's attention," he said, "Bacon, the principal chief, Red Eagle, the assistant chief, and Thomas West, a member of the council, were removed for bribery."

A written confession by Tom West and no defense from others were the only replies to these charges. The conditions ran along with seven members of the council continuing to do the tribe's business until after a special investigation, the remainder of the council was summarily removed, and the report of the investigation was turned over to the attorney general.

Laws Covering Case Lost.
The difficulty in all these cases is that there is no specific law making it a crime for an official of an Indian tribe to accept a bribe. The attorney general has sent on this report, with his recommendations to the United States attorney of Oklahoma.

T. J. Leahy, representing the deposed councilors, declared that if the report charged anything improper in connection with the framing of the leases he was sure there would be no evidence to support the charge. He said he stood to gain $12,500 and his cousin would get a like amount of the disputed leases went through.

A petition by the deposed chiefs to mandamus Secretary Fisher to show cause why they should not be reinstated was argued today in the district supreme court.

NEGROES ALLOW LAKE GENEVA OPTION TO EXPIRE

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—An option which had been obtained by a negro organization of Chicago on property at Lake Geneva, Wis., passed by default yesterday when no effort was made to take advantage of an advance payment made for the privilege of first bid for its ownership. The option on the property expired yesterday without any representative of the organization being present to ask an extension or otherwise look after any transfer of the property. An auction of the property was arranged three weeks ago, but none of the wealthy residents of the place attended and no effort was made to call it in this manner.

MILAN IS LEAGUE RAFFLES

Has a Great Percentage, Judged by
New Way of Reckoning.

HE IS NOT AFRAID TO STEAL

Cleveland Catchers Have the Best
Luck in Stopping Washington Star in His Efforts at Pillaging Bases.

Base runners. In the not far distant future, may be ranked on a percentage basis, just as the work of the basemen, fielders and pitchers is now tabulated. It has been suggested that a record be kept of the number of times a man is caught trying to steal, and the total of unsuccessful attempts be added to his stolen bases and then divided into them. The result would, it is thought, give a correct line on a man's base running ability.

Clyde Milan of the Senators was boss of the American league's raffles brigade last year, pilfering, eighty-eight bases. The speedy Washington star had an average of .571 steals per game, according to the proposed way of reckoning, but that record hardly does him justice.

J. Clyde actually was a base runner of the .733 class, since he was stopped by the backstops on only thirty-one occasions, when he started to steal. The Cleveland catchers, strange to say, flagged Milan the greatest number of times, nailing him in seven attempts to pilfer. A reasonable explanation for their success in throwing him out so frequently is that he was not a bit backward about testing their wings.

Milan was thrown out five times by the New York backstops, four times by the wind paddlers of the St. Louis, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia teams and thrice by the maskmen of the Detroit club. The men who thwarted Milan in his attempts to steal last season are named below:

Cleveland, 7—By O'Neil, 4; Rasterly, 3; Livingston, 1.
New York, 5—By Sweeney, 3; Street, 2; St. Louis, 4—By Krichell, 3; Criger, 1; Stephens, 1.
Chicago, 4—By Kuhn, 2; Sullivan, 1; Schalk, 1.
Boston, 4—By Carrigan, 3; Cady, 1.
Philadelphia, 4—By Egan, 2; Lapp, 2.
Detroit, 3—By Onslow, 2; Stanage, 1.
